The explosion in student data mining beyond the classroom poses great risk to the safety, privacy, and civil liberties of children and families.

WHO is collecting teacher and student data? WHO can get it? WHAT are the risks? WHAT has changed? WHAT is FERPA? HOW have other states acted to increase data protections? WHAT can parents, legislators, educators, and local communities do?

MODERATOR

Rep. Andrew Flesichmann, Co-Chair,
Education Committee
